

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

ARMS OF REV. STEPHEN BACHILER

PREFACE.

IN August, 1899, a meeting of the descendants of REUBEN and MOSES BATCHELDER, of Hampton Falls, was held at Dearborn Hall, in Seabrook, and it was voted to organize and hold meetings annually.

The suggestion that a list of these descendants be prepared and published in pamphlet form, grew into the larger plan of having a complete list of descendants of their father, Deacon DAVID BATCHELDER, who was one of the leading citizens of Hampton Falls in his day.

The task of compiling this volume was assigned to the Secretary of the Batchelder Reunion Association, with a committee to arrange for publication.

It has been thought desirable to prefix a short sketch of David's ancestry. In a work of this sort it is almost impossible to have no errors, but we hope they will not be found numerous. A few dates could not be obtained.

ANCESTRY.

THE Bachiler family was of Norman extraction. The name is first found on English registers in the thirteenth century.

I.

STEPHEN BACHILER, our first American ancestor, was born in England in 1561, entered St. John's College, Oxford, Nov. 17, 1581, and took his degree, Feb. 3, 1586. On July 15, 1587, he was instituted as Vicar of Wherwell in Hampshire. In 1605 he was ejected from his vicarage because of his religious views, but for some years preached when he found opportunity, as an Independent. In 1632 he came to America, and in 1638 founded the town of Hampton, New Hampshire. He was twice married in England. His second wife, Helen, died in Hampton, and about 1648 he made a third marriage, which proved unhappy. With his grandson, Stephen Sanborn, and family, he returned to England about 1655, and died at Hackney, near London, in 1660. He had six children by his first marriage.

1. Nathaniel, b. 1590; m. Hester Mercer.
2. Deborah, b. 1592; m. John Wing.
3. Stephen, b. 1594; entered Magdalen College, Oxford, in 1610, "aged 16."
4. Samuel, b. 1596; was a chaplain in Holland in 1620.
5. Theodate, b. 1598; m. Christopher Hussey; d. in Hampton, Oct. 20, 1649.
6. Anne, b. 1600; m. John Sanborne about 1619.

II.

NATHANIEL, eldest son of Rev. Stephen Bachiler, lived in England; married Hester Mercer of Southampton, a niece of Rev. John Priaulx, and had five children.

1. Stephen, b. —; a merchant in London, Eng., in 1685.
2. Anna, b. —; m. Daniel Du Cornet; d. before 1661.
3. Francis, b. —; res. England.
4. Nathaniel, b. about 1630; settled in Hampton, N. H.
5. Benjamin, b. —; res. England.

III.

NATHANIEL, grandson of Rev. Stephen, was born in England about 1630, came to America in early life and settled in Hampton. He married Dec. 10, 1656, Deborah, daughter of John Smith of Martha's Vineyard. She died March 8, 1676, and he married, second, Oct. 31, 1676, Mrs. Mary Wyman of Woburn, Mass., widow of John Wyman, and daughter of Rev. Thomas Carter. She was a cousin of his first wife. She died in 1688, and Oct. 23, 1689, he married Elizabeth, widow of John Knill, who survived him. He died Jan. 17, 1710, aged about eighty years. He had seventeen children, nine by the first marriage and eight by the second. He was a prosperous and prominent citizen of Hampton.

Children by the first wife:

1. Deborah, b. Oct. 12, 1657; m. Joseph Palmer; d. —.

11.

REUBEN BATCHELDER, son of David, was born May 11, 1777; married Feb. 5, 1807, Betsey, daughter of Michael and Lucy (Burnham) Tilton, of Hampton Falls; settled on a farm in their native town, where he died March 7, 1868. She was born Nov. 9, 1782; died Nov. 29, 1857; a sweet and gentle woman, whose memory is cherished by her descendants. The Unitarians having gained a majority in the old church, he became one of the founders of the "First Evangelical Congregational Church of Seabrook and Hampton Falls," commonly known as the "Line Church," of which he was for twenty-eight years a deacon. His father, grandfather and great-grandfather had all held the office of deacon in the old church.

Children:

50. David, b. Nov. 1, 1808; m. Marianne H. Lane; d. Dec. 21, 1891.

51. Lucy, b. Nov. 14, 1810; m. Daniel Merrill, Dec. 10, 1846; d. Dec. 4, 1890. She had no children, but was a loving mother to her step-daughter. Abbie (Merrill) Evans had a large family, to whom Lucy was a kind and beloved grandmother.

55. John, b. Nov. 11, 1818; m. M. Izette Greene.
56. Nathaniel, b. July 27, 1821; d.— 1822.

13.

MOSES BATCHELDER, son of David, was born Jan. 8, 1782; married Jan. 5, 1809, Abigail, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Jenness) Drake, of Hampton; inherited the homestead, and died there July 11, 1861. She was born in Hampton, Sept. 24, 1784, died Jan. 17, 1872. Through her ancestor, Robert Drake, who settled in Hampton in 1651, she was descended from one of the best families in Devon County, England, and was herself a woman of sterling worth, a fitting mate for her husband. When the old church was broken up by dissensions and became Unitarian, he was one of the most prominent leaders in uniting with the Congregationalists of Seabrook, and with his brother Reuben, Col. Jacob Noyes and Dr. Edward Dearborn, built the "Line" meeting-house and helped to establish the church and society. He was a prosperous farmer, and in 1837 built a new house, tearing down the old Batchelder mansion built by his great-grandfather. He represented the town in the Legislature of 1834. His death was caused by an accident at his mill.

Children:

57. Josiah, b. March 23, 1810; m. Nancy Young; d. May 31, 1886.
58. Mary, b. Dec. 24, 1811; d. March 30, 1894, unmarried; a long life of Christian service.

HENRY ELKINS (Mary, David,) was born on the old family place at Bride Hill in Hampton, Oct. 21, 1802; married July 5, 1835, Miriam Hoit, daughter of Obadiah and Miriam (Hoit) Colby, of Amesbury, Mass. She was born June 30, 1802, died July 31, 1883. He went to Amesbury in his younger days and learned the tanners' and curriers' trade, then returned to Hampton and carried on that business with his brother David. Soon after his marriage he sold his share of the home place to his brother, and in February, 1836, removed to North Hampton, where he bought the old Smith farm and turned his attention entirely to farming, in which occupation he was quite successful. He first joined the Congregational Church in North Hampton, but in 1848 he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church at Hampton, of which he was an active and prominent member, serving as Steward from 1848 till his death, January 19, 1871. It was a remarkable coincidence that his death was caused as his brother David's had been, more than sixteen years before, by a fall from the high beams of his barn. He was an honored and respected citizen, a man of sterling integrity and uprightness. In personal appearance he strongly resembled the poet Whittier, this likeness being probably an inheritance from their Batchelder ancestry.

RHODA BATCHELDER (Reuben, David,) was born in Hampton Falls, Aug. 24, 1814; married Nov. 5, 1845, Sylvester Abbott, of Andover, Mass., and died in Andover, April 8,

EMERY BATCHELDER

1895. He was born Feb. 26, 1803: died Oct. 29, 1875. Rhoda Batchelder Abbott, the second daughter and fourth child of Reuben and Betsey Batchelder, spent the greater part of her life in Andover. She had many cares besides her own family; the aged father of her husband, two invalid sisters, a brother left in his old age, with no family of his own, and another sister who was unable to aid herself, all in turn were cared for by Rhoda, always with loving devotion and self-sacrifice. Her husband died when she was in the prime of life, and the care and support of the family devolved upon her. She possessed remarkable business ability, which was shown in efficient management of her own affairs. Above all, she was a loving, faithful servant of her chosen Lord and Master. Her oldest daughter, Caroline Brown, was married in 1875 to J. H. Hewes, and lived her married life in Cincinnati, Ohio. Her life there was only six short happy years, and it seemed to her dear ones that she could not be spared, but the Master called her to His home above. Her youngest daughter, Mary Smith, was the comfort of her last days, but she was called Home before her mother's life here was finished. Of her, too, it seemed as if she could not be spared, but the Lord knew best, and loving friends submitted to the Everlasting love, who loves unto the end.

His death, May 31, 1886, was caused by a fall from the stairs leading to the office of the Amesbury "Villager"; the base of his skull was fractured and he never recovered consciousness. He came to Amesbury in 1832, when twenty-two years of age, and for nearly fifty-four years labored diligently to found a home and provide for the wants of his family. He purchased a large tract of land upon Powow Hill, and proved by his knowledge of farming that hills as well as valleys could be made to yield abundantly. He was attached to his miniature mountain-home, and believed that in time it would attract the attention of builders. In his old age this expectation was realized. His death was a sudden stroke to his wife and son and daughters, all but one of whom he had lived to see well settled in pleasant homes of their own upon his loved highland. In the town where he had labored to complete his allotted task in life, and where he was well known and highly respected, it was a sad occurrence. To him, however, it was a painless death,—a happy transformation to the higher life beyond.
